

The areas of interaction

- - create content relevancy
- - focus teaching and learning
- - promote student inquiry
- - the broader context in which the concept will be taught is the area of interaction with direction from the student learning expectation (SLE)
- - in order to arrive at a SLE, the teacher must consider the content as it is put into context by using an area of interaction.